

AFC Report – 31st October 2009

Old Parmiterians continued their good run in the Premier, opening the scoring midway through the second half as Warren Coborne converted Sean Jarvis' cross. Meads hit back, Ed Glover converting a goalmouth scramble, but Parmas quickly restored their lead through Scott Lewis and sealed it as Lewis Jones set up Coborne to give Parmas a 3-1 win.

In Senior One Old Salvatorians won 3-1 away to Hale End, falling behind to Tom McCombie's header, but Salvos finally woke up, and equalised as Cal Murphy was fouled in the box and converted the penalty himself. Salvos immediately made it 2-1, Murphy setting up Graham Chick, and in the second half sealed the points with ten minutes left as Will Andrews set up Ryan Fitzpatrick to smash home off the post.

Ignatians beat Challoners 3-1, Tom Cahill, Connor O'Grady and Cliff Neary all notching, with Tom Capliss' own goal the only consolation.

Centymca thrashed Wood Green Old Boys 7-1. Joe Trainor scored a hat-trick, Paul Williams a brace with Andy Livesey and Dominic Grimm completing the rout.

Old Suttonians were outclassed by Bealonians in the AFA Senior Cup, Ian Sawyer opening the scoring, but in the second half Sutts fought back, and equalised as Ryan Russell crossed for Dan Smith to score. Into extra time, and Jamie McNuff crossed for Alex Toogood to slot home the winner for Sutts.
